Provincial Sales Tax Act

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX REGULATION

B.C. Reg. 96/2013

PART 1 – INTERPRETATION

Division 1 – Definitions

Definitions

1 In this regulation:

“Act” means the Provincial Sales Tax Act;

“cannabis” has the same meaning as in the Cannabis Control and Licensing Act;

“participating savings institution” means a savings institution that will accept the payment or remittance of tax imposed under the Act to the account of the government.

[am. B.C. Reg. 211/2018, s. 1.]

Accommodation

2 (1) For the purposes of paragraph (a) of the definition of “accommodation” in section 1 of the Act, lodging excluded from that paragraph is lodging provided in a unit that

(a) does not contain a bed, and

(b) is to be used to display merchandise, to entertain or to hold a meeting, dinner or reception.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of “accommodation” in section 1 of the Act, the following dwellings are prescribed:

(a) lodging houses other than hospitals, assisted living residences as defined in the Community Care and Assisted Living Act and long-term residential care facilities;

(b) bunkhouses, cabins, condominiums, dormitories, hostels, mobile homes, stationary vehicles and vacation homes;

(c) a dwelling operated by a club or association, whether or not a membership is required for use of the dwelling;

(d) that part of a ship or train in which lodging is provided while the ship or train is not in transit or is not making a scheduled stopover in British Columbia;

(e) a residential dwelling.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2) (e), “residential dwelling” has the same meaning as in paragraphs (a) to (d), (g) and (h) of the definition of “residential dwelling” in the Provincial Sales Tax Exemption and Refund Regulation, except that definition is to be read without reference to paragraphs (i) to (m), and includes any part of a residential dwelling.

[am. B.C. Reg. 141/2018, Sch. 1, s. 1, as am. by B.C. Reg. 185/2018.]

Appraised value

2.001 (1) For the purposes of the definition of “appraised value” in section 1 of the Act, the appraised value of a vehicle must

- (a) be determined by a person described in subsection (2), and
- (b) that person must determine the fair market value of the vehicle.

(2) The following persons are described for the purpose of subsection (1):

- (a) a motor dealer registered under the Motor Dealer Act;
- (b) a person authorized under the law of another jurisdiction to carry on business in that jurisdiction in a manner similar to a motor dealer under the Motor Dealer Act;
- (c) a person whose business it is to appraise motor vehicles.

[en. B.C. Reg. 169/2022, Sch. 1.]

Average wholesale value

2.002 (1) In this section, “industry standard publication” means a publication specified by the director, as the publication is amended from time to time.

(2) For the purposes of the definition of “average wholesale value” in section 1 of the Act, if, at the time an application is made for the registration of the motor vehicle under the vehicle registration legislation,

- (a) a motor vehicle is listed in the most recent edition of the industry standard publication by make, model, trim and model year, then the average wholesale value is the average wholesale value listed in the most recent edition of the industry standard publication for that motor vehicle for British Columbia, or
- (b) a motor vehicle is listed in the most recent edition of the industry standard publication by make, model and trim and the most recent model year listed is an earlier model year of the motor vehicle, then the average wholesale value is the average wholesale value listed in the most recent edition of the industry standard publication for the most recent model year of the motor vehicle for British Columbia.

[en. B.C. Reg. 169/2022, Sch. 1.]

Eligible tangible personal property

2.01 For the purposes of paragraph (e) of the definition of “eligible tangible personal property” in section 1 of the Act, cannabis is prescribed.

[en. B.C. Reg. 211/2018, s. 2.]

2.1 Repealed. [B.C. Reg. 154/2022, Sch. 1, s. 1.]

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX REGULATION

Part 1 – Interpretation

E-vaping devices

2.2 For the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of “e-vaping device” in section 1 of the Act, a product or device having both of the following characteristics is prescribed:

- (a) the product or device contains an electronic or battery-powered heating element;
- (b) the purpose of the product or device is to heat a heated tobacco product within the meaning of the Tobacco Tax Act.

[en. B.C. Reg. 246/2020, s. (a).]

Fair market value – boats

3 For the purposes of paragraph (a.1) of the definition of “fair market value” in section 1 of the Act, the property prescribed is the tangible personal property referred to in section 34 (1) [marine safety equipment] of the Provincial Sales Tax Exemption and Refund Regulation.

Lease – incidental right to use tangible personal property

3.1 For the purposes of paragraph (d) of the definition of “lease” in section 1 of the Act, a right to use tangible personal property is merely incidental to an agreement for the right to use real property, or to an agreement for the provision of services that are not subject to tax under the Act, in the following prescribed circumstances:

- (a) in respect of an agreement for the right to use real property,
 - (i) the term of the right to use the real property is 7 days or less,
 - (ii) there is no separate price for the right to use the tangible personal property, and
 - (iii) the total consideration payable for the right to use the real property, including the right to use the tangible personal property, is the same as, or only marginally different from, what would be the total consideration payable for the right to use the real property if there were no right to use the tangible personal property;
- (b) in respect of an agreement for the provision of services that are not subject to tax under the Act,
 - (i) the fundamental and overriding objective of the agreement is the acquisition of the service and not the right to use the tangible personal property,
 - (ii) there is no separate price for the right to use the tangible personal property, and
 - (iii) the total consideration payable for the service, including the right to use the tangible personal property, is the same as, or only marginally different from, what would be the total consideration payable for the service if there were no right to use the tangible personal property.

[en. B.C. Reg. 117/2014, Sch. 1, s. 1.]

Liquor permit

- 3.2 For the purposes of the definition of “liquor permit” in section 1 of the Act, the class of permit prescribed is the special event permit.

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX REGULATION

Part 1 – Interpretation

Division 2 – Purchase PricePurchase price if accommodation purchased with meals and other services

- 8 For the purposes of section 19 (3) of the Act, the amount attributed to the purchase of accommodation is as follows:
- (a) if accommodation is also offered by the seller, or the person from whom the accommodation is acquired, without meals or other services, the purchase price at which accommodation without meals or other services is offered;
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply, the lesser of
 - (i) 15% of the amount equal to the total value of the consideration accepted by the seller, or the person from whom the accommodation is acquired, including, without limitation, a price in money and the value of services accepted by that seller or person, as the price or on account of the price of the accommodation, meals and other services, and
 - (ii) $100 per day.

[en. B.C. Reg. 117/2014, Sch. 2, s. 1.]

Purchase price of legal services – excluded fees and charges

- 9 For the purposes of section 20 (2) (a) [original purchase price of legal services] of the Act, fees and charges for the transmission, printing or copying of documents are prescribed as excluded if the amount of the fees or charges is reasonably related to the cost of the transmission, printing or copying of documents incurred by the person providing the legal services.

Depreciated purchase price of tangible personal property

- 10 (1) In this section, “partial year”, in relation to tangible personal property, means a period that is less than a year and in which the tangible personal property was used by the person liable to pay tax under the Act.
- (2) For the purposes of section 25 of the Act, the following tangible personal property is prescribed:
- (a) aircraft;
 - (b) railway rolling stock;
 - (c) vehicles;
 - (d) vessels;
 - (e) equipment;
 - (f) furnishings;
 - (g) affixed machinery.

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX REGULATION

Part 1 – Interpretation

- (3) For the purposes of section 25 (2) (a) of the Act, the depreciated value of tangible personal property prescribed under subsection (2) of this section is the amount determined by the following formula:

$$\text{depreciated value} = \text{purchase price} - [\text{purchase price} \times \text{rate}]$$

where

purchase price = the purchase price of the tangible personal property under section 9 (a) to (d.2) of the Act;

rate = the rate of depreciation determined as follows:

- (a) in relation to aircraft, the total of
 - (i) 25% for each year that the aircraft was used by the person liable to pay tax under the Act, and
 - (ii) 2.0833% for each 30-day period in a partial year that the aircraft was used by the person liable to pay tax under the Act;
- (b) in relation to railway rolling stock or equipment mounted on railway rolling stock, the total of
 - (i) 10% for each year that the railway rolling stock or equipment was used by the person liable to pay tax under the Act, and
 - (ii) 0.8333% for each 30-day period in a partial year that the railway rolling stock or equipment was used by the person liable to pay tax under the Act;
- (c) in relation to a vehicle or equipment mounted on a vehicle, the total of
 - (i) 30% for each year that the vehicle or equipment was used by the person liable to pay tax under the Act, and
 - (ii) 2.5% for each 30-day period in a partial year that the vehicle or equipment was used by the person liable to pay tax under the Act;
- (d) in relation to a vessel or equipment mounted on a vessel, the total of
 - (i) 15% for each year that the vessel or equipment was used by the person liable to pay tax under the Act, and
 - (ii) 1.25% for each 30-day period in a partial year that the vessel or equipment was used by the person liable to pay tax under the Act;

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX REGULATION

Part 1 – Interpretation

- (e) in relation to equipment, furnishings or affixed machinery not described in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d), the total of
 - (i) 20% for each year that the equipment, furnishings or affixed machinery was used by the person liable to pay tax under the Act, and
 - (ii) 1.667% for each 30-day period in a partial year that the equipment, furnishings or affixed machinery was used by the person liable to pay tax under the Act.
- (4) For the purposes of subsection (3), depreciation must be determined separately for each item of equipment mounted on railway rolling stock, a vehicle or a vessel.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (3), the use of tangible personal property by the person referred to in that subsection must be computed to the nearest 30-day period, with at least 15 days of use counted as one 30-day period.

Purchase price of software if bundled purchase – prescribed programs

10.1 For the purposes of section 26 (4.1) (b) (i) of the Act, the following programs are prescribed:

Change in use of motor vehicle by dealer

- 26 (1) In this section, “business vehicle”, in relation to a dealer for a month, means the following:
- (a) a dealer-use vehicle that is used in the month only for a use prescribed under subsection (3) (a) (iii);
 - (b) a donated vehicle that is used in the month only for a use prescribed under subsection (3) (b);
 - (c) a parts delivery or shuttle vehicle that is used in the month only for a use prescribed under subsection (3) (c).
- (2) The following motor vehicles are prescribed for the purposes of section 84.1 (2) and (3) of the Act:
- (a) a dealer-use vehicle;
 - (b) a donated vehicle;
 - (c) a parts delivery or shuttle vehicle.
- (3) The following uses of a motor vehicle prescribed under subsection (2) are prescribed for the purposes of section 84.1 (2) and (3) of the Act:
- (a) in relation to a dealer-use vehicle, use in one or more of the following ways:
 - (i) by a dealer, or by an officer, salesperson or employee of the dealer, for any purpose related to the dealer’s business as a motor dealer;
 - (ii) by a dealer, or by an officer, salesperson or employee of the dealer, for personal transportation;
 - (iii) as a courtesy car;
 - (b) in relation to a donated vehicle, use by the organizers of or participants in a community event solely for use during the event;

Part 3 – Taxes in Relation to Tangible Personal Property

(c) in relation to a parts delivery or shuttle vehicle, use only in one or both of the following ways:

- (i) by a dealer, or by an officer, salesperson or employee of the dealer, to transport motor vehicle parts in the course of the dealer's business;
- (ii) by a dealer, or by an officer, salesperson or employee of the dealer, to transport the dealer's customers while the customers' vehicles are being serviced in the course of the dealer's business.

(4) For the purposes of section 84.1 (2) and (3) of the Act, the amount of tax payable by a dealer in respect of the dealer-use vehicles, other than zero-emission vehicles, that are used in a month only for a use prescribed under subsection (3) (a) (i) or (ii) of this section is equal to the amount calculated by the following formula:

$$\text{tax payable} = 1.75\% (\text{average vehicle value} \times \text{users} \times \text{applicable percentage})$$

where

average vehicle value = the dealer's average vehicle value for the month as determined under subsection (5); users = the number of the dealer's employees authorized to use dealer-use vehicles, other than courtesy cars and zero-emission vehicles, during that month;

applicable percentage = as follows:

- (a) 7%, if the dealer's average vehicle value for the month is less than $55 000;
- (b) 8%, if the dealer's average vehicle value for the month is $55 000 or more but less than $56 000;
- (c) 9%, if the dealer's average vehicle value for the month is $56 000 or more but less than $57 000;
- (d) 10%, if the dealer's average vehicle value for the month is $57 000 or more but less than $125 000;
- (e) 15%, if the dealer's average vehicle value for the month is $125 000 or more but less than $150 000;
- (f) 20%, if the dealer's average vehicle value for the month is $150 000 or more.

(5) For the purposes of subsection (4), a dealer's average vehicle value for a month is equal to the amount determined by the following formula:

$$\text{average vehicle value} = \frac{\text{total value}}{\text{total vehicles}}$$

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX REGULATION

Part 3 – Taxes in Relation to Tangible Personal Property

(2) For the purposes of section 185 of the Act, the following conditions and limitations apply in respect of the deduction of an allowance by a registrant:

- (a) a registrant may not deduct more than one allowance for a reporting period if the registrant has more than one place of business in British Columbia or remits tax to the government more than once during a reporting period;
- (b) if a registrant has been issued more than one registration number, the registrant may deduct an allowance for tax remitted in relation to only one registration number.

[am. B.C. Reg. 13/2023, s. 1.]

Division 2 – Filing of Collector’s Return

Collector’s return for each registration number

- 75 If a registrant has been issued more than one registration number, the registrant must file a separate collector’s return for each registration number.

Collector’s return for each designated accommodation area

- 76 Subject to section 75, if a collector levies tax imposed under section 123 or 123.02 of the Act, the collector must file separate collector’s returns as follows:

- (a) for each designated accommodation area in respect of which the collector levies tax under section 123 of the Act, a collector’s return that relates only to the tax imposed under that section in that designated accommodation area;
- (a.1) for each designated major event accommodation area in respect of which the collector levies tax under section 123.02 of the Act, a collector’s return that relates only to the tax imposed under that section in that designated major event accommodation area;
- (b) a collector’s return that relates to all other tax under the Act that the collector levies.

[am. B.C. Reg. 13/2023, s. 2.]

Prescribed date for filing collector’s return

- 77 (1) For the purposes of section 186 (1) [collector’s returns] of the Act, the prescribed date for the filing of a collector’s return by a collector is,

- (a) if the collector's reporting period is a period of one or more months, the last day of the month after the end of the collector's reporting period, or
 - (b) if the collector's reporting period is not a period of one or more months, 30 days after the last day of the collector's reporting period.
- (2) For the purposes of section 186 (1) of the Act, the prescribed date for the filing of a collector's return by a person referred to in section 186 (1) (b) or (c) of the Act is the last day of the month after the month in which the amount referred to in section 186 (1) (b) or (c) of the Act is collected.
- (3) For the purposes of section 186 (1) of the Act, the prescribed date for the filing of a collector's return by a person referred to in section 186 (1) (d) of the Act is the last day of the month after the month in which the liquor is sold by auction.

[am. B.C. Reg. 117/2014, Sch. 3, s. 4.]

Prescribed manner for filing collector's return

- 78 (1) For the purposes of section 186 (1) of the Act, the prescribed manner for the filing of a collector's return by a collector is as follows:
- (a) if the person filing the collector's return had a total of $1.5 million or more of sales or leases of property or services in Canada in the previous 12 months, by an electronic method specified by the director;

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX REGULATIONPart 10 – Claims of Solicitor-client Privilege

Calculation of interest

- 96 Interest payable under the Act must be
- (a) compounded monthly, and
 - (b) calculated on the number of days since the last compounding of interest, or if no compounding has yet occurred, from the date that interest is payable under the Act.

PART 10 – CLAIMS OF SOLICITOR-CLIENT PRIVILEGEDefinition

- 97 In this Division, “client” has the same meaning as in section 244 of the Act.

Retention or seizure of records for which solicitor-client privilege is claimed

- 98 (1) If the director is about to inspect, audit or examine a record that is in the possession of a lawyer and the lawyer claims that a client of the lawyer has a solicitor-client privilege in respect of the record,
- (a) the director must not inspect, audit or examine the record, and
 - (b) the lawyer must
 - (i) place the record in a package, together with any other records in respect of which the lawyer at the same time makes the same claim on behalf of the same client,
 - (ii) suitably seal and identify the package or, if the director and the lawyer agree, allow pages of the record to be initialled and numbered or otherwise suitably identified, and
 - (iii) retain the package and ensure that the package is preserved until the package is produced to a court under section 99 or 100 and an order under that section is made in respect of the record or until the record is otherwise dealt with in accordance with this regulation.
- (2) If a person acting under the authority of a warrant in relation to a possible contravention of the Act or regulations under the Act is about to seize a record that is in the possession of a lawyer and the lawyer claims that a client of the lawyer has a solicitor-client privilege in respect of the record,
- (a) the person seizing the record must not inspect, examine or make copies of the record, and
 - (b) that person must
 - (i) seize the record and place the record in a package, together with any other records subject to seizure in respect of which the lawyer at the same time makes the same claim on behalf of the same client,
 - (ii) suitably seal and identify the package, and

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX REGULATIONPart 10 – Claims of Solicitor-client Privilege

- (iii) place the package in the custody of a sheriff or, if the lawyer and that person agree in writing on another person to act as custodian, in the custody of that other person.
- (3) For the purposes of subsections (1) and (2), if a record is in electronic form only, the lawyer must make a copy of the record in printed, electronic or other form and the person required to place the record in a package must include in the package either the original record or the copy.
- (4) A lawyer who makes a claim under this section must
 - (a) make a reasonable effort to inform the client of the claim, and
 - (b) advise the director in writing as to whether the lawyer informed the client of the claim and, if the client was informed, whether the client waives the claim of solicitor-client privilege.

Custody of seized documents while claim determined

- 99
- (1) The custodian of a record seized under section 98 (2) must not deliver the record to any person except
 - (a) in accordance with an order under section 100 or 101,
 - (b) to the lawyer in accordance with a written consent of the director, or
 - (c) to the director in accordance with a written consent of the lawyer or the client.
 - (2) At any time while a record seized under section 98 (2) is in the custody of a custodian, the lawyer who made the claim under that section may apply to the Supreme Court without notice to any other person for an order that
 - (a) authorizes the lawyer to examine or make a copy of the record in the presence of the custodian or a judge of the court, and
 - (b) contains provisions that the court considers necessary to ensure that the record is repackaged and the package resealed without alteration or damage.
 - (3) If any question arises as to the course to be followed in connection with anything done or being done under this section or section 100 or 101 and there is no direction in this section or section 100 or 101 on the matter, on application, the Supreme Court may give such direction as is in the court's opinion most likely to carry out the object of sections 98 to 101 of allowing solicitor-client privilege for proper purposes.

Application to court by lawyer or client

- 100
- (1) Within 14 days after a record is retained under section 98 (1) or seized under section 98 (2), the lawyer or the client may apply to the Supreme Court by way of a petition proceeding for a determination of whether the client has solicitor-client privilege with respect to the record.

PROVINCIAL SALES TAX REGULATION

Part 10 – Claims of Solicitor-client Privilege

- (2) In the petition filed under subsection (1), the government must be designated “Her Majesty the Queen in right of the Province of British Columbia”.
- (3) Within 7 days after the filing of the petition under subsection (1), the petition must be served on the government in accordance with section 8 of the Crown Proceeding Act.
- (4) If the person who filed the petition under subsection (1) sets the matter down for hearing, that person must, at least 7 days before the date set for the hearing,
 - (a) serve a notice of hearing on the government and on the custodian of the record, if any, and
 - (b) pay to the custodian, if any, the estimated expenses of transporting the record to and from the place of hearing and of safeguarding the record.
- (5) The hearing of an application must exclude the public if
 - (a) the lawyer or the client requests that the public be excluded, or
 - (b) the court orders that the public be excluded.
- (6) On the hearing of an application, the court must,
 - (a) if the court decides that the client has solicitor-client privilege with respect to the record, order the release of the record to the lawyer or the client, or
 - (b) if the court decides that the client does not have solicitor-client privilege with respect to the record,
 - (i) in the case of a record retained under section 98 (1), order that the lawyer make the record available for inspection, audit or examination by the director, or
 - (ii) in the case of a record seized under section 98 (2), order the custodian to deliver the record to the director.
- (7) The court may inspect the record if the court considers this necessary for the purposes of subsection (6) of this section and, if the inspection is done, the court must ensure that the record is repackaged and the package resealed and the reasons for judgment must not divulge any details of the record.

Application to court by government

- 101 (1) The government may apply to the Supreme Court for an order under this section if
- (a) no application under section 100 (1) is commenced within the time limit set by that section in relation to a record that was retained or seized, or
 - (b) the person bringing an application under section 100 does not set the matter down to be heard on a date no later than 30 days after the commencement of the application or a later date agreed to by the government.
- (2) The government must give notice of the hearing to
- (a) the lawyer, and

- (b) the client, if the identity of the client is known to the government.
- (3) If the identity of the client is not known to the government, a lawyer who is given notice of the hearing under subsection (2) must
 - (a) make reasonable efforts to give notice of the hearing to the client, and
 - (b) advise the court as to whether the lawyer gave notice of the hearing to the client.
- (4) A client who is given notice of the hearing under subsection (3) is deemed to have been given notice of the hearing by the government.
- (5) On the hearing of an application under this section, the court may,
 - (a) in the case of a record retained under section 98 (1), order that the lawyer make the record available for inspection, audit or examination by the director, or
 - (b) in the case of a record seized under section 98 (2), order the custodian to deliver the record to the director.
