

A.D. 1883.

CHAP. 11.

An Act to amend the law of Evidence.

[12th May, 1883.]

HER MAJESTY, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows:—

1. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary the parties to any action for breach of promise of marriage shall be competent and compellable to give evidence in such action: Provided, always, that no plaintiff in any action for breach of promise of marriage shall recover a verdict unless his or her testimony shall be corroborated by some other material evidence in support of such promise.

Parties to action for breach of promise of marriage may give evidence.

Plaintiff's evidence must be corroborated.

2. This Act may be cited as the "Evidence Amendment Act, 1883."
