WHEREAS Robert Brown-John of the City of Rock Creek, in the Province of British Columbia, has by his petition represented

- (a) that B. J. Field Service Ltd. (the “Company”) was incorporated in British Columbia on June 26, 1986, under Certificate of Incorporation No. 0311145 issued pursuant to the Company Act, R.S.B.C. 1979, c. 59, in effect as at that date,
- (b) that a notice was published in the British Columbia Gazette on October 5, 1989, pursuant to the Company Act, R.S.B.C. 1979, c. 59, stating that the Company would be struck off the Register of Companies and dissolved unless, within one month after the publication of the notice, cause was shown to the contrary,
- (c) that the Company was struck off the Register of Companies on November 10, 1989,
- (d) that a notice was published in the British Columbia Gazette on November 23, 1989 stating that the Company was struck off the Register of Companies and dissolved on November 10, 1989,

- (f) that it will not be possible to continue carrying on the business of the Company unless the Company is revived, and
- (g) that, since the Company was a corporation to which the Company Act applied and since there is no provision in that Act for the revival of a company more than 10 years after it has been dissolved, the Company cannot be revived except by a special Act of the Legislature of British Columbia;
