

CHAPTER 77.

An Act relating to the Corporation of the District of Burnaby, British Columbia.

[Assented to 21st December, 1923.]

WHEREAS the Corporation of the District of Burnaby has by Preamble.
its petition represented that the said Corporation is a district municipality within the meaning of the "Municipal Act," and that it is necessary, in the interest of the inhabitants and ratepayers of the said municipality, to enact the provisions hereinafter contained, and has prayed that the same may be enacted accordingly:

And whereas it is expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition:

Therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the "Burnaby Municipality Act, Short title. 1923."

2. In the construction of this Act the following words or expressions shall have the following meanings respectively:— Interpretation of terms.

"Municipality" shall mean the Municipality of Burnaby:

"Council" shall mean the Municipal Council of the Corporation of the District of Burnaby.

In defining any word or expression used in this Act not by this Act expressly defined, reference may be had to the provisions of the "Municipal Act."

3. The Council shall have power from time to time by by-law to provide for the borrowing from any person or corporation who may be willing to advance the same as a loan such sums of money as may be necessary to reduce outstanding obligations of the municipality which are secured by the hypothecation of arrears of taxes, and the Council shall have the power to pledge as security for the Power to pass by-laws to borrow money on tax sale lands.

sums so advanced all or any of the lands and the proceeds of the sale of such lands acquired by the municipality through tax-sale proceedings, and no such by-law shall require the assent of the electors or the approval of the Inspector of Municipalities. The proceeds of the sale of the lands so hypothecated shall be used for the purpose of the redemption of the debt created under the provisions of this section, and for no other purpose until after the said debt shall have been redeemed.

"Burnaby Conservation of Assets Act, 1921," to apply.

4. Any unsold portion or portions of lands acquired at tax sales in the years 1920, 1921, 1922, and 1923 and subsequent years and any moneys due on lands which have been sold remaining or accruing after the redemption of any obligation created under the provisions of the preceding section shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed in the "Burnaby Conservation of Assets Act, 1921," and all the provisions of the said Act shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the said lands and money.
