113. In case the Council desires to make an anticipatory appropriation for the next ensuing year in lieu of the special rate for such year, in respect of any debt, the Council may do so by by-law, in the manner and subject to the provisions and restrictions following:—

What funds may be so appropriated.

(1.) The Council may carry on the credit of the sinking fund account of the debt as much as may be necessary for the purposes aforesaid: (a) Of any money at the credit of the special rate account of the debt beyond the interest on such debt for the year following that in which the anticipatory appropriation is made; (b) and of any money raised for the purpose aforesaid, by additional rate or otherwise; (c) and of any money derived from any temporary investment of the sinking fund; (d) and of any surplus money derived from any corporation work, or any share or interest therein; (e) and of any unappropriated money in the treasury; such moneys respectively not having been otherwise appropriated:

- (2.) The by-law making the appropriations shall distinguish the several sources of the amount and the portions thereof to be respectively applied for the interest and for the sinking fund appropriation of the debt for such next ensuing year : The sources and application to be stated.
- (3.) In case the moneys so retained at the credit of the special rate account and appropriated to the sinking fund account from all or any of the sources above mentioned, are sufficient to meet the sinking fund appropriation and interest for the next ensuing year, the Council may then pass a by-law directing that the original amount for such next ensuing year be not levied. When moneys retained sufficient, the yearly rate may be suspended for the ensuing year.

114. Such by-law shall not be valid unless it recites:—

By-law must recite—

And that it is reserved, etc.

115. The Council shall keep in its books two separate accounts, one for the special rate and one for the sinking fund, or for instalments of principal of every debt, to be both distinguished from all other accounts in the books by some prefix designating the purpose for which the debt was contracted, and shall keep the said accounts with any others that are necessary, so as to exhibit at all times the state of every debt and the amount of money raised, obtained and appropriated for payment thereof. Two special accounts to be kept:
(1) Of the special rates.
(2) For the sinking fund or instalments of principal.

116. If after paying the interest of a debt and appropriating the necessary sum to the sinking fund of such debt, or in payment of any instalment of principal for any financial year, there is a surplus at the credit of the special rate account of such debt, such surplus shall so remain and may be applied, if necessary, towards the next year's interest; but if such surplus exceeds the amount of next year's interest, the excess shall be carried to the credit of the sinking fund account, or in payment of the principal of such debt. When surplus may be applied to next year's interest, and to sinking fund.

Produce of special rate in respect of any debt may be invested.

119. If any part of the produce of the special rate levied in respect of any debt, and at the credit of the sinking fund account or of the special rate account thereof, cannot be immediately applied towards paying the debt by reason of no part thereof being yet payable, the Finance Committee of the Council shall from time to time invest the same in Government securities, repurchases of City debentures, or in first mortgages, on improved real estate held and used for farming purposes, and being the first lien on such real estate, or in repurchase of local improvement debentures of the City, or in such other manner as the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may by general or special order direct, and from time to time may re-convey and release mortgages and securities under the seal of the Corporation as such securities mature, and may re-invest in other like securities. Member of Council shall not be party to investment of sinking fund otherwise than authorised by Act.

123. In the event of any real estate mortgaged to the City under the provisions of this section becoming vested in the City by virtue of a suit of foreclosure, or by conveyance or sale, or in the event of the Finance Committee of the Council of the City deeming it advisable to exercise the power of sale in any such mortgage, it shall be lawful for the Council to convey, under the seal of the Corporation, and to vest any such real estate in a purchaser thereof, without passing a by-law authorising such sale or submitting the same for the assent of the electors.
