

CHAPTER 104.

An Act to amend the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900."

[Assented to 23rd April, 1918.]

WHEREAS a petition has been presented by the City of Vancouver praying that the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900," be amended:

And whereas it is deemed expedient to grant the prayer of the said petition:

Therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows:—

1. Section 4 of the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900" (hereinafter called "the principal Act"), as amended by section 1 of the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1917," is repealed, and the following section enacted in lieu thereof:—

"4. (1.) There shall be elected annually a fit and proper person who shall be called the Mayor of the City of Vancouver; and in the event of the whole city being declared by by-law to be one ward, there shall be elected to represent such ward not less than eight, nor more than twelve, fit and proper persons who shall be and be called Aldermen of the city, and the Council shall from time to time by by-law fix the number of Aldermen to be so elected. In the event of the city being by by-law divided into two or more wards, there shall be elected one or more fit and proper persons to represent each such ward, and the Council shall from time to time by by-law fix the number of Aldermen to represent each such ward; but in no event shall the Council consist of less than eight, nor more than twelve, Aldermen, provided that such Mayor and Aldermen shall be elected biennially if a by-law providing for such biennial election shall have first been submitted to the electors qualified to vote for

of Council

Mayor and Council to be elected for two years in case by-law has been assented to by Council.

Mayor, and shall have been assented to by such electors voting, and shall have been finally passed by the Council, in which event the provisions of this Act providing for the nomination and election of Mayor and Aldermen annually shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the nomination and election of Mayor and Aldermen biennially, subject to the provisions of such by-law, and such by-law may, inter alia, contain any of the following provisions:—

“(a.) That the Council shall be nominated and elected from the city at large, and hold office for two years from the date of such election, and from that time onward until their successors shall have been elected:

“(b.) That the Council, exclusive of the Mayor, shall be nominated and elected from different wards in the city, as fixed by by-law, and hold office for two years from the date of such election, and from that time onward until their successors have been elected:

“(c.) That the Council when nominated and elected from the city at large shall consist of an even number of Aldermen, exclusive of the Mayor of such city, and when nominated and elected from different wards in the city (if more than one Alderman is to be elected from each ward), then the number of Aldermen to be elected from each ward shall be of an even and equal number.

“(2.) In the event of such by-law containing any of the provisions set out in the next preceding clause, then half the number elected and receiving the highest number of votes in the city at large or in their respective wards at the first election shall continue in office for two years from the date of such election, and from that time onward until their successors have been elected, and the remainder shall continue in office for one year from the date of their election, and from that time onward until their successors have been elected. In each year succeeding the first such election of such last-mentioned Aldermen there shall be elected as many Aldermen as shall be necessary to fill the places of the Aldermen whose term of office then expired, so as to complete the full complement of Aldermen, and such Aldermen as are elected in each succeeding year after the first election shall hold office for two years from the date of their election, and from that time onward until their successors shall have been elected. In the event of this by-law being assented to by the electors qualified to vote for Mayor and passed by the Council, the provisions of this Act providing for the nomination and election of Mayor and Aldermen annually shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the nomination and election of Mayor and Aldermen in the manner herein provided.

Certain persons disqualified to sit as Mayor or Alderman.

“(3.) No Judge of any Court of Record of this Province, Sheriff or officer of the said Courts, nor officer of His Majesty's Army or Navy on full pay, nor Provincial, county, or city licence commissioner or inspectors, nor salaried officer of the city, nor any person having any unsettled, disputed account against or due by the city, nor any person whose taxes due to the city are delinquent, or any person accountable for the revenues of the city, nor any officer or person presiding at an election of Mayor or Aldermen while so employed, nor any person who shall have been convicted of treason or an indictable offence in any Court of law within His Majesty's Dominion or elsewhere, or any person having by himself, or through his partner or as agent for any incorporated company, any contract whatever or interest in any contract with or for the city, either directly or indirectly, shall be capable of being elected or serving as Mayor or Alderman; but no person shall be held to be disqualified from being elected Mayor or Alderman of the city by reason of his being a shareholder in any incorporated company having dealings with the City Council of the city, but no such shareholder shall vote in the Council on any questions affecting such company, nor shall any person holding office at the time of the passing of this Act be disqualified during the year 1918 from serving as Mayor or Alderman by reason only of his being indebted to the city for delinquent taxes.

"(4.) No person shall be qualified to be elected Mayor or Alderman unless such person resides within the city or within three miles thereof, and is a natural born or a naturalized subject of His Majesty, and of the full age of twenty one years, and is not disqualified under this Act, and has been for six months next preceding the day of nomination the registered owner in fee-simple in his own right in the Land Registry Office of real property within the city limits of the assessed value over and above all charges, liens, and encumbrances affecting the same, in the case of Mayor of one thousand dollars ($1,000), and in the case of Aldermen of five hundred dollars ($500), or the registered owner for six months next preceding the day of nomination of leasehold property for a term of three years to the assessed value of three thousand dollars ($3,000) over and above all liens, charges, and encumbrances affecting the same, and which lease must extend over the whole term of his office, and being otherwise qualified as a voter. In the case where two or more persons are registered owners as joint tenants or tenants in common of real property, the value of the share or interest in the case of Mayor must be, over and above all encumbrances, one thousand dollars ($1,000), and in the case of Alderman five hundred dollars ($500)."

Qualification of Mayor and Alderman

2. Section 46A of the principal Act, as amended by section 5 of the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1917,"

Section 46A
amended

is hereby amended by inserting as subclause (j) thereof the following clause:

"(j.) To provide for the revision of the assessment roll and to enable the Council to sit as a Court of Revision for that purpose, and to provide for the appointment of Assessment Commissioners and Collectors for the purpose of carrying out any by-law passed under the provisions of this section."

Subsec. (b) of
s. 70 amended.

3. Subsection (b) of section 70 of the principal Act is amended by striking out the word "six" where it appears in the eleventh line of the said subsection, and inserting in lieu thereof "at a rate of interest not exceeding ten per centum per annum."

4. The principal Act is further amended by inserting the sections 72B, C, D, E, F, G, and H.

"72B. If the Council shall pass a by-law providing for the bringing into force the following sections 72C, D, E, F, G, and H, then in such an event the said sections shall be deemed to be in force and to have taken effect.

Defines "capital sum."

"72C. For the purpose of the next five succeeding sections, the words 'capital sum' shall have the following meaning, unless the context shall require a different meaning; that is to say, the words 'capital sum' shall mean the aggregate amount of taxes and local improvement taxes accrued payable to the city in respect of any parcel of land prior to the first day of January, 1919, and remaining unpaid, together with accrued interest thereon.

Council to pass
tax sale by-law
in certain events

"72D. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, it shall be the duty of the Council in each and every year, during the years 1919 to 1928, inclusive, to pass a by-law for the purpose of authorizing the sale of any parcel of land in respect of which any capital sum has accrued payable to the city prior to the first day of January, 1919, and remaining unpaid, and such by-law shall be passed not earlier than the first day of October, 1919, and not later than the first day of November, 1919, and such by-law shall provide that such sale shall be held within forty days after passing of the same.

Land to be exempt from payment if instalments paid

"72E. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, if the owner of any parcel of land shall have, not later than the fifteenth day of September, 1919, paid to the city one-tenth of the capital sum relating to such parcel, together with the interest on such capital sum, computed at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, from the thirty-first day of December, 1918, to the fifteenth day of September, 1919, such parcel of land shall not be liable to be sold at the sale of land for taxes required to be held by section 72D of this Act.

"72F. Notwithstanding anything in this Act contained, if the payment required by section 72E of this Act shall be made, such parcel of land shall not be liable to be sold at any sale of land for taxes held in any of the years 1920, 1921, 1922, 1923, 1924, 1925, 1926, 1927, and 1928, provided that the owner thereof shall not later than the fifteenth day of September in each of the said years—

- “(a.) Pay to the city one-tenth of the capital sum relating to such parcel:
- “(b.) Pay to the city interest on the balance of such sum outstanding immediately before the date of such payment, such interest to be computed at the rate of eight per cent. per annum from the last preceding fifteenth day of September, to the fifteenth day of September in the year in which such payment is made:
- “(c.) Pay to the city all general taxes and local improvement taxes falling due in respect of such parcel for the last preceding year, together with accrued interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent. per annum up to the time of such payment.

“72g. It shall be competent for any owner to pay in advance in any year one or more of the annual instalments of capital sum specified by paragraph (a) of the next preceding section, but he shall nevertheless be required on or before the fifteenth day of September in each year to pay interest at the rate of eight per cent. per annum on the balance of the capital sum remaining unpaid and mentioned in paragraph (b) of the next preceding section, and failure to pay duly such interest shall constitute a default within the meaning of the next succeeding section of this Act.

“72h. (1.) If default be made in due and full payment in or for any year of any of the amounts required to be paid as provided by sections 72d, e, f, and g, the parcel of land in respect of which default shall have been made shall be put up for sale and sold for all delinquent taxes as defined by section 72a of this Act at the then next following sale of land for taxes.

If instalments not paid land to be sold, except under certain conditions

“(2.) Provided, however, that if the person so in default shall, before such parcel is sold, pay to the Corporation the following amounts:—

- “(a.) Every instalment of capital sum in arrears, together with interest on the outstanding balance of capital sum of eight per cent. per annum, up to the then next following fifteenth day of September:
- “(b.) All general taxes and local improvement taxes which shall have accrued due in respect of such parcel since the thirty-first day of December, 1918, with interest thereon up to the date of such payment:
- “(c.) All costs, charges, and expenses (if any) chargeable in respect of the intended sale of such parcel,— such parcel shall thereupon be exempt from such sale unless and until another or further default shall be made in respect thereof, in which event the provisions of this section shall again be applicable from time to time, so often as any such default shall occur."

5. Section 103 of the principal Act, as amended by section 4 of the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1911," and by section 13 of the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1915," is further amended by striking out all the lines in the said section from the word "the" in the first line thereof to the word "subject" in the eleventh line of the said section; and said section 4 of the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1911," and section 13 of the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1915," are repealed, and the following words inserted in lieu thereof:—

Corporations and wives of soldiers
on assessment roll
to vote on money
by-laws.

"The right to vote on money by-laws requiring assent of the electors shall belong to the following persons, being males, married women (of the full age of twenty-one years), or any corporation, or wife of any person who has either enlisted or been mobilized as a Volunteer in the Forces raised by the Government of Canada in aid of His Majesty in the War now existing between His Majesty and certain European Powers, or has left Canada to join the Navy or Army of His Majesty or any of his Allies in the said War as a Volunteer or Reservist (of the full age of twenty one years), being rated to the amount of three hundred dollars ($300) as owners of real property on the last revised assessment roll, held in their own right, or the right of the corporation, or the right of the husband of the last-mentioned person, and each such person so qualified shall be entitled to one vote, provided that such corporation shall vote only by a duly authorized agent, whose authority shall be filed with the City Clerk before the City Clerk shall have completed and closed the list of voters entitled to vote on such by laws, and further provided that such agent shall be entitled to vote for such corporation from year to year until his appointment as such agent is cancelled, and the City Clerk has notice of such cancellation; and such wife of such person who has been enlisted or mobilized as aforesaid shall, before voting, make the declaration required by subsection (1a) of section 5 of this Act: Provided further that when any such owner is the holder of the last agreement to purchase such real property or the last assignee of said agreement, such owner shall not have such right of voting on any such by-law unless he or she shall have filed with the City Clerk, before the City Clerk shall have completed and closed the list of voters entitled to vote on such by-law, a statutory declaration proving that he or she is the holder of the last agreement to purchase such real property, or is the last assignee thereof, by the terms of which such holder or assignee is liable to pay the taxes, and is a British subject."

Holders of agreement of sale to vote
on money by-law

6. Section 125 of the principal Act is hereby amended by inserting as subsection (129a) the following subsection:—

“(129a.) For licensing all persons or corporations using any carts, wagons, trucks, or automobiles for the purpose of their business, and for classifying such carts, wagons, trucks, or automobiles, and for differentiating in the fees to be imposed on such classes of carts, wagons, trucks, or automobiles.”

Council given the right to license persons using carts, etc.

7. Subsection (130a) of section 125 of the principal Act, as enacted by the “Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1915,” and amended by the “Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1916,” and amended by the “Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1917,” is further amended by inserting the word “limiting” after the word “licensing” and before the word “and” in the first line of the said subsection; and by repealing all words in the said subsection after the word “security” in the forty-second line of the said subsection, and substituting in lieu thereof the following:—

Subsec. (130a) amended.

“In and for the purpose of this section, the words ‘motor-vehicle’ mean and shall include automobiles and locomobiles operated or driven either wholly within the limits of the city or from or to any point within the limits of the city to or from any other point beyond the limits of the city, either for hire, gain, or profit, directly or indirectly, or for the purpose of the conveyance, taking on, discharge, or transference of passengers to and from any point within the limits of the city from or to any other point beyond the limits of the city, or for the conveyance of any person in such automobile or locomobile for which any sum of money, reward, gift, or voluntary contribution is taken, accepted, or solicited from or on behalf of any passenger or occupant thereof, and all other vehicles propelled otherwise than by muscular power which are operated or driven as aforesaid, excepting the cars of electric and steam railways and other motor-vehicles running only upon rails or tracks.”

The said subsection (130a) is further amended by repealing the proviso added to the said subsection by section 17 of the “Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1917,” and substituting in lieu thereof the following:—

“And provided further that the city may, if it should deem it advisable to do so, arrange all motor-vehicles in classes and differentiate in the conditions contained in licences granted and the licence fees imposed on the owners of motor-vehicles coming within one and the same class and on owners of motor-vehicles coming within different classes, or prohibit the operation on any or all of its streets of all motor-vehicles coming within any of such classes."

Section 125 of the principal Act is hereby amended by adding after subsection (130b) the following subsection (130c):—

"(130b.) For prohibiting or regulating and controlling the location, erection, maintenance, operation, and use within any defined area or areas, or on land abutting on or adjacent to defined highways or parts of defined highways, of offices, stands, depots, or terminal facilities used by the owners or drivers of motor-vehicles."

8. Subsection (133) of section 125 of the principal Act, as amended by section 20 of the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1915," is hereby repealed, and the following subsection inserted in lieu thereof:—

Appointment of Licence Inspector
and defining duties.

"(133.) For the appointment of a Licensing Inspector and defining his powers and duties, and for providing that in the event of any licensee being convicted of the violation of any by-law, that such powers shall include the right of the Inspector to temporarily suspend the licence of any such licensee pending action by the Council at the regular meeting held next after such suspension."

9. Subsection (166b) of section 125 of the principal Act, as amended by section 10 of the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1910," is amended by inserting at the end thereof the following words: "and providing pensions, gratuities, or retiring allowances to any such employee of the Corporation, and for that purpose to deduct from the salaries of such employee what amounts the Council may deem necessary."

Establishment of pension fund

Subsec (215) of
s. 125 amended.

10. Subsection (215) of section 125 of the principal Act, as amended by the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1900, Amendment Act, 1910," is further amended by inserting at the end of said subsection amended as aforesaid, the following words:—
