

CHAPTER 68.

An Act to incorporate the Mid-Provincial and Nechaco Railway Company.

[1st March, 1911.]

WHEREAS a petition has been presented praying for the incorporation of a company to construct and operate railways as hereinafter set forth, and it is expedient to grant the prayer of the petition:

Therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, enacts as follows —

1. Anthony Christian Forsberg-Hamilton, of the City of Vancouver, civil engineer; Charles H. Lugin, of the City of Victoria, journalist; Harry Morehouse Leonard, of said City of Victoria, broker; Elijah Brunswick Shaw, of said City of Victoria, real-estate agent; and Frank Eugene Reid, of said City of Victoria, broker, together with such persons as become shareholders in the Company hereby incorporated, are hereby constituted a body corporate under the name of "Mid Provincial and Nechaco Railway Company" (hereinafter called "the Company").

2. The head office of the Company shall be in the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, but may be changed to such other place in British Columbia as is fixed by law passed at an annual general meeting or at any special meeting.

3 The Company may build, construct, maintain, and operate a line of railway of standard gauge, to be operated by steam, electricity, or other power, for the purpose of carrying passengers, logs, and merchandise, or either, from the mouth of the Salmon River on

Dean Channel or from a point at or near Bella Coola, or some point between them, or some other convenient point near thereto, on the western boundary-line of the Province of British Columbia, to Sigutla Lake; thence to Kwalcho Lake; thence along the Uhaighat River to Entiaco Lake, and along the Entiaco River to Nataklus Lake; thence along the Upper Nechaco River to Fraser Lake; thence in an easterly direction through the Pine River Pass to a point where the eastern boundary-line of the Province of British Columbia intersects the Peace River, or any other feasible route, with power to construct, acquire, own, and maintain wharves and docks in connection therewith, and to construct, acquire, own, charter, equip, and maintain steam and other vessels and boats, and to operate the same on any navigable waters in British Columbia.

Capital stock

4. The capital stock of the Company shall be three million dollars, divided into thirty thousand shares of one hundred dollars each, and may be called up by the directors from time to time as they deem necessary.

First general meeting.

5. So soon as one hundred thousand dollars of the capital stock shall have been subscribed and allotted, and ten per cent. of the amount shall have been paid into some chartered bank in Canada, the provisional directors shall call a meeting of the shareholders of the Company at the place where the head office is situate, at such time as they shall think proper, giving the notice prescribed by section 6 of this Act, at which meeting the shareholders who have paid ten per cent. on the amount of stock subscribed by them shall, from the shareholders, elect not less than five directors (of whom a majority shall form a quorum for the transaction of business), who shall hold office until others are elected.

Notice of first general meeting

6. Public notice of the first meeting of the shareholders of the Company shall be given by advertisement published for at least thirty days in the British Columbia Gazette and in one newspaper published in the place where the head office is situate, and by a twenty days' notice in writing to each shareholder, delivered to him personally or mailed, properly directed, to him at his last-known place of abode, in which notice shall be specified the place, day, and hour of meeting. All such notices shall be published at least weekly, and a copy of such Gazette and newspaper containing such notice shall, on production thereof, be evidence of the sufficiency of such notice.

Provisional directors

7. The persons named in the first section of this Act shall be and are hereby constituted provisional directors of the Company (a majority of whom shall form a quorum), with power to add to the number, but so that the directors shall not in all exceed fifteen in number. The Board of Directors, so constituted, shall have all the powers hereby conferred upon the directors of the Company, and they shall hold office until the first election of directors under this Act.

8. The first annual general meeting of the Company shall be held at such time as the directors of the Company may determine, and all subsequent annual general meetings shall be held at such time as may be prescribed by the Company in general meeting; and if no other time is prescribed, the annual general meeting shall be held on the third Wednesday of October in each year, at which annual general meetings a Board of not less than five directors (of whom a majority shall form a quorum for the transaction of business) for the management of the Company's affairs shall be elected.

Annual general meetings.

9. No director shall be disqualified from holding office by reason of or on account of his being concerned, directly or indirectly, in any other company or association, or in any contracts with the Company, or on account of his receiving any pay or remuneration from the Company as such director or otherwise.

Director not disqualified by holding office

10. No failure to elect directors or to hold the first or any annual meeting shall operate as a dissolution of the Company; but anything omitted to be done may afterwards be performed at a meeting called in conformity to the by laws specially for the purpose.

Failure to elect directors not to operate as dissolution

11. The Company may issue bonds, debentures, or other securities to the extent of thirty-five thousand dollars per mile of the railway and branches, and such bonds, debentures, or other securities may be issued only in proportion to the length of railway constructed or under contract to be constructed:

Bonding powers

Provided, however, that no such bonds, debentures, or other securities shall be issued unless the directors have been authorised so to do by a resolution passed by a two thirds majority at any general or special meeting for that purpose among others called, at which meeting shareholders representing at least two-thirds in value of the subscribed stock of the Company are present or are represented by proxy.

Proviso

12. The Company shall have power to promote any other company or incorporation or association of persons for any purposes which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company, and for that purpose to obtain any Act of Parliament which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests.

Power to promote other companies.

Pledges of stock,
etc.

13. The Company may from time to time, for advances of money, pledge any stock, debentures, or bonds which under the powers of this Act can be issued for the construction of the railway, or other purposes of the Company hereby authorised.

Traffic arrangements with other companies.

14. The Company may enter into any agreement for conveying or leasing to any other railway, steamship, transportation, telegraph, or telephone company, in whole or in part, the lines of railway or branches, telegraph or telephone lines, which the Company by this Act is empowered to construct and operate, or for an amalgamation with any other such company if lawfully empowered to enter into such agreement, or for forming any traffic or other arrangements with any railway, steamboat, or transportation company, the whole upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the contracting parties: Provided that each such agreement has been first sanctioned by two-thirds of the votes at a special general meeting of the shareholders duly called for the purpose of considering the same, at which meeting shareholders representing at least two-thirds in value of the stock are present in person or represented by proxy; and provided, also, that each such agreement shall be assented to by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council:

- (1.) Such assent shall not be signified until after notice of the proposed application therefor has been published for thirty days in the British Columbia Gazette and also in one newspaper circulating in the district in which the railway of the Company runs.
- (2.) A duplicate of each agreement referred to in this section shall, within thirty days after its execution, be filed in the office of the Provincial Secretary, and notice thereof shall be given by the Company in the British Columbia Gazette, and the production of the British Columbia Gazette containing such notice shall be prima facie evidence of the requirements of this Act having been complied with.

Telegraph and telephone business

15. The Company may undertake to transmit messages for the public by its line of telegraph or telephone, and collect tolls for so doing.

Express business

16. The Company may carry on a general express business, either as a separate undertaking or in connection with its railway.

Powers to acquire lands by bonus

17. The Company may acquire and hold lands by way of bonus, privilege, concession, or grant from any Government, or from any municipal or other corporation, or from any person, and may alienate, sell, or dispose of the same.

Stone, timber, etc.,
required for construction.

18. The Company may, with the consent of the Minister of Lands, take from any public lands adjacent to or near the line of the said railway, or branches, all stone, timber, or gravel and other material which may be necessary or useful for the construction of the railway, and also may fill in upon any public lands.

19. The Company shall have power to collect and receive all charges subject to which goods or commodities may come into their possession, and on payment of such charges, and without any formal transfer, shall have the same lien for the amount thereof upon such goods and commodities as the person to whom such charges were originally due, and shall be subrogated by such payment in all the rights and remedies of such persons for such charges.

Collection of charges on goods.

20. The clauses or sections of the "British Columbia Railway Act," and all future amendments thereto, shall apply to this Company, in the same manner and to the extent as if the same had been set forth clause by clause in this Act.

"British Columbia Railway Act" to apply.

21. The Company shall, within six months after the coming into force of this Act, deposit with the Minister of Finance and Agriculture the sum of five thousand dollars, either in cash or securities approved by said Minister, as security that the Company will expend not less than ten thousand dollars in surveys or construction of the railway hereby authorised to be built, before the thirty-first day of December, 1912, and in default of such expenditure the aforesaid deposit of money or securities shall be forfeited to and become the property of the Government; and should such security not be deposited as aforesaid, or should such expenditure not be made within such time, all the rights and privileges conferred by this Act shall be null and void.

Deposit to secure expenditure of $10,000 on construction before thirty-first December, 1912.

22. Any Act hereafter passed for the purpose of controlling, regulating, or affecting companies incorporated by the Legislature of British Columbia with regard to any matter or thing dealt with by this Act shall apply to the Company from the time such Act goes into effect, and this section shall not be construed to imply that such Act would not apply to the Company without the enactment of this section.

Future legislation to apply.

23. This Act may be cited as the "Mid-Provincial and Nechaco Railway Company Act, 1911."
