For registry use only

This Application for Order Prohibiting the Relocation of a Child sets out the details of an order prohibiting the relocation of a child that a person is applying for under section 69 of the Family Law Act.

Please read before completing the form:

- This application is to be used only if a child's guardian plans to relocate themselves, the child, or both, and there is a written agreement or order respecting parenting arrangements or contact with the child applies to the child [s. 65 Family Law Act].
- If there is no written agreement or court order, you may apply for an order under s. 46 of the Family Law Act [changes to child's residence if no agreement or order] using an Application About a Priority Parenting Matter Form 15 or Application About a Family Law Matter Form 3 to determine the parenting arrangements for the child including the location of the child's residence.
- For guidance filling in this form, please read the guidebook. The guide is available online at www.gov.bc.ca/court-forms or from your local court registry.

An application prohibiting the relocation of a child under s. 69 of the Family Law Act must be filed within 30 days after receiving written notice that the guardian plans to relocate the child [s. 68 Family Law Act].

Part 4 | About your court appearance

For registry or judicial case manager use only

The application, which requires a court appearance, will be heard by the court on _____	at _____ a.m./p.m.
<small>date</small>	<small>time</small>
<input type="checkbox"/> in person at _____	<small>court location</small>
<input type="checkbox"/> by another method of attendance, as specified _____	<small>attendance details</small>

The registry or judicial case manager will work with you to schedule a date for the court appearance and will fill in the actual date and method of attendance on the form. Be prepared to talk about your availability if there are options for dates.

NOTE TO THE OTHER PARTY:

If you do not attend court on the date and time scheduled for the court appearance, the court may make an order in your absence.

You may also choose to file a written response in reply to the application in Form 19 Written Response to Application.

The court must be satisfied that:

- the proposed relocation is being made in good faith,
- the relocating guardian has proposed reasonable and workable arrangements to preserve the relationship between the child and the child's other guardians, persons who are entitled to contact with the child, and other persons who have a significant role in the child's life, and
- the relocation is in the best interests of the child.

You can make an application under s. 69 of the Family Law Act only if there is an existing written agreement or court order about parenting arrangements [s. 65 Family Law Act].

Part 5 | About the order

6. ☐ I am applying for an order to prohibit the relocation of a child or children.
7. ☐ There is a written agreement or order respecting parenting arrangements referred to in section 65 of the Family Law Act made on _____ that applies to Date (dd/mmm/yyyy)
the child(ren) that are the subject of this application (see attached copy of agreement or order).

You must attach a copy of the agreement or order to this application for filing.

8. Select only one of the options below and complete the required information
- ☐ Notice of relocation was given to me on _____ (see attached copy)
Date (dd/mmm/yyyy)

- ☐ I did not receive written notice of relocation but became aware of the planned relocation on _____.
Date (dd/mmm/yyyy)

I understand the date of the relocation of the child(ren) to be _____ to _____.
Date (dd/mmm/yyyy)
Location

I learned about the planned relocation:

Briefly explain how you found out about the planned relocation if you did not receive written notice

You must attach a copy of the notice of relocation, if applicable, to this application for filing.

Part 6 | Best interests of the child

9. I believe it is in the best interests of the child(ren) to prohibit the proposed relocation because:

To determine what is in the best interests of a child, all of the child's needs and circumstances must be considered including the factors set out in s. 37 of the Family Law Act.

The parties and the court must consider the best interests of a child when making a decision about contact with a child.

For more information, see the guidebook.

Part 7 | Filing location

10. I am filing this application in the court registry:

Select only one of the options below

- ☐ Where my existing case with the same party/parties is located. I already have a court file number.
