Guardianship of a child

Appointing a guardian or terminating guardianship

Complete this schedule only if you need a court order to appoint a new guardian for a child or to cancel an existing guardian's guardianship of a child.

Please read before completing this schedule:

Anyone who wants to become a guardian can apply, including a parent who is not a guardian or anyone else (even if they are not related to the child) [s. 51 Family Law Act]. Only a guardian may have parental responsibilities and parenting time with respect to a child [s. 40].

The Family Law Act provides that while a child's parents are living together and after the child's parents separate, each parent will continue to be the child's guardian and will have parental responsibilities with respect to the child [ss. 39 and 40]. This does not mean that parents must have equal responsibility for a child.

An agreement or order about parenting arrangements can give parental responsibilities to one or more guardians only, each guardian acting separately, or all guardians acting together [s.40]. You can use Schedule 1 or Schedule 2 to apply for an order about parenting arrangements.

In some cases, it may not be appropriate for a parent or guardian to remain a guardian. An agreement or order can provide that a parent is not the child's guardian [s.39].

ä

Usually, a child's parent is also the child's guardian, but not always. For more information about who is a guardian, see the guidebook.

Part 1 | Order about guardianship

- 1. Select each option that applies
 - I am applying to be appointed as a guardian of the child(ren)
 - I am applying for the following person(s) to no longer be the guardian of the child(ren):

The court may appoint a person as a child's guardian or terminate a person's guardianship of a child [s. 51 Family Law Act].

You may state "since birth" in the middle column instead of putting the specific date, if applicable [s. 51 Family Law Act].

Part 2 | Best interests of the child

2. I believe the order about guardianship of a child that I am applying for is in the best interests of the child(ren) because:

If a child is 12 or older, the court must not appoint a person other than a parent as the child's guardian without the child's written approval, unless satisfied it is in the child's best interests [s. 51 Family Law Act].

To determine what is in the best interests of a child, all of the child's needs and circumstances must be considered including the factors set out in s. 37 of the Family Law Act.

The parties and the court must consider the best interests of a child when making a decision about guardianship of a child. For more information, see the guidebook.
