

Item and Method of Inspection	Reject If
1. Operation and Function
Additional Procedure: Following the visual inspection of a vehicle for compliance with applicable standards and regulatory requirements, the vehicle must be operationally and functionally tested for confirmation of proper performance, drivability and safe on highway operation prior to the application of a certificate of approval and inspection report submission. NOTE: Vehicle operation and function testing is subject to all applicable driver and driving requirements, vehicle licensing, and vehicle insurance. NOTE: Results and confirmation of operation and function test must be noted on the inspection report. a) operate vehicle	a1) any vehicle component or system does not operate or function to applicable safety standard, vehicle inspection manual criteria or regulatory requirements a2) any vehicle component or system does not operate or function as intended by manufacturer a3) any vehicle system or on-board diagnostic does not provide indicators of proper operation or function for vehicle safety as intended by manufacturer

All inspection procedures are visual unless additional inspection procedures are indicated or where applied force is necessary to verify tightness and/or component security.

This page left intentionally blank.

All inspection procedures are visual unless additional inspection procedures are indicated or where applied force is necessary to verify tightness and/or component security.