

Item and Method of Inspection	Reject If
Manufactures Compliance Label: is a label applied to a vehicle by the manufacturer that states the vehicle conforms to all applicable Canadian Motor Vehicle Safety Standards (CMVSS) in effect on the date of manufacture.
1. Trucks, Truck Tractors, Light Vehicles and Buses
a) for a VIN on the dashboard, firewall, manufactures compliance label (usually found on the driver's door or on the adjacent door post), and owner's documentation. NOTE: Some vehicles MAY not have a VIN in all of the noted locations. Diligence is required to ensure that all located VIN's are accurate and applicable to the vehicle presented for inspection. b) the VIN on the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – door NOTE: Door may have been replaced with a used or recycled one. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – door pillar – dashboard – firewall NOTE: If there is discrepancy with a VIN, other than that on the door, refer the customer to an AUTOPLAN agent. c) BC Assigned VIN BC Assigned VIN is visible and riveted to the frame, door pillar or firewall using tamper-proof rivets. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i) VIN on the firewall ii) verify BC Assigned VIN with ICBC VIN assignment document 	a) any do not match b) not legible, crimped or held down by unusual rivets or bolts or there is glue around the VIN plate <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – the VIN has been altered in some way or appears to be counterfeit. – the VIN is missing or damaged – checkered pattern on the sticker should be an indication that it has been peeled off another vehicle – the VIN is hidden or mutilated i) not attached by tamper proof rivets, not installed in a visible location ii) BC Assigned VIN does not match the one on the document

All inspection procedures are visual unless additional inspection procedures are indicated or where applied force is necessary to verify tightness and/or component security.

Item and Method of Inspection	Reject If
2. Trailers
a) the VIN on the frame and owners documentation NOTE: Some trailers MAY not have a VIN. Diligence is required to ensure that all located VIN's are accurate and applicable to the vehicle presented for inspection. If there is discrepancy with VIN or no VIN is located, refer the customer to an AUTOPLAN agent. b) BC Assigned VIN BC Assigned VIN is riveted to the frame using tamper-proof rivets. i) VIN on the frame ii) verify BC Assigned VIN with ICBC VIN assignment document	a) do not match <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – not legible, crimped or held down by unusual rivets or bolts or there is glue around the VIN plate – the VIN has been altered in some way or appears to be counterfeit – the VIN is missing or damaged – a checkered pattern on the sticker should be an indication that it has been peeled off another vehicle – the VIN is hidden or mutilated. i) not attached by tamper-proof rivets, not installed in a visible location ii) BC Assigned VIN does not match the one on the document

All inspection procedures are visual unless additional inspection procedures are indicated or where applied force is necessary to verify tightness and/or component security.

Item and Method of Inspection	Reject If
3. Motorcycles
a) VIN is stamped on a visible portion of the frame and owners documentation b) manufactures compliance label on the frame Affixed to permanent part of the motorcycle as close as practicable to the intersection of the steering post and the handle bars so that it is easily visible without moving any part of the motorcycle except the steering system. Applicable to all manufactured vehicles. NOTE: If there is discrepancy with the VIN, refer the customer to an AUTOPLAN agent. c) BC Assigned VIN BC Assigned VIN is riveted to the frame using tamper-proof rivets. i) VIN on the frame ii) verify BC Assigned VIN with ICBC VIN assignment document	a) missing, VINs do not match b) compliance label: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – not legible, crimped or held down by unusual rivets or bolts or there is glue around the VIN plate – the VIN tag has been altered in some way or appears to be counterfeit, or the label is missing completely – removed, transferred or defaced – a checkered pattern on the label is an indication that it has been transferred from another vehicle – not visible, mutilated, or the numbers thereon differ from the VIN displayed on the frame, VIN plate or owners documentation i) not attached by tamper-proof rivets, not installed in a visible location ii) BC Assigned VIN does not match the one on the document

All inspection procedures are visual unless additional inspection procedures are indicated or where applied force is necessary to verify tightness and/or component security.

This page left intentionally blank.

All inspection procedures are visual unless additional inspection procedures are indicated or where applied force is necessary to verify tightness and/or component security.